Students and staff were offered various training sessions on the effective use of different e-learning platforms. Add-on and value-added programs were conducted through institutional e-learning platform viz. edupaul.com. Every class was recorded, and the videos were shared with students through institutional media telecast platforms and/or through YouTube channels of individual faculty members. Exams were conducted and evaluated using exam management software and low performers were given additional sessions for better performance. Students from remote localities, who could not participate in classes were offered additional support through one-to-one interactions and additional lecture notes.
