Lives”

Best Practice 2

1. Title: “Parivarthan - Transacting Knowledge; Transforming Lives”
2. Objectives: To prepare students to apply academic knowledge to real-life situations while involving in community development activities. To inculcate ethical responsibility, benevolence and humanitarian attitude among students by initiating them into community service.
3. The Context: St. Paul’s College, Kalamassery aspiring to live up to its motto ‘Life Nobly Lived’ is committed to reaching out to the poor and the helpless. The college has become a pioneer in providing exemplary and quality education intertwining tradition with technology and morality with modernization.
4. The Practice

One of the best practices of the college align with the concept of Transacting Education; Transforming lives is named as ‘Parivarthan.’ ‘Parivarthan’ envisages change, which is unique and distinctive in its own respect endorsing community/civic engagement as one of its pivotal aspects.

5. Evidence of success:
  - Meaningful Service Opportunities
  - Awards and Recognitions
  - Welcoming an inclusive community and teamwork
6. Problems Encountered and Resources required:
  - Frequent lockdowns due to the pandemic stalled physical activities.
  - Webinars and online activities do not match up to actual offline activities.
  - Financial and time constraints are the major problems encountered.
