Kerala Piravi and Bhasha Week Celebrations

The Department of Malayalam organized Kerala Piravi Day and Bhasha Week Celebrations with great enthusiasm and cultural vibrancy. The event was presided over by the College Principal, Dr. Pramada Ramachandran, and was formally inaugurated by the College Manager, Fr. Varghese Valiyaparambil. The chief guest for the occasion was Mr. Jibu Kochuchira, an emerging poet and theatre director, who captivated the audience with his inspiring address highlighting the beauty and power of the Malayalam language and the importance of preserving linguistic heritage. The celebration began with the Bhasha Pledge, recited by Dr. Savitha K.S., Head of the Department of Mathematics, emphasizing the commitment to uphold and promote the Malayalam language.

As part of the week-long celebrations, students actively participated in poetry recitations and book reviews showcasing their literary talents and deep appreciation for Malayalam literature. The program was coordinated by Mr. Sarath B. S., HoD of Malayalam. The celebration served as a meaningful tribute to the rich linguistic and cultural heritage of Kerala and reinforced the significance of Malayalam in academic and cultural spheres.

National Seminar – Cultural Worlds of Language

The Department of Malayalam, in collaboration with Probhodha Trust, Ernakulam, conducted a National Seminar titled Cultural Worlds of Language, focusing on the diverse intersections of language, literature, and culture.

The seminar was inaugurated by the eminent Malayalam writer Prof. M. K. Sanu, whose thoughtful address reflected on the cultural depth and evolving dynamics of language in modern times. The session was presided over by Fr. Varghese Valiyaparambil, the College Manager, who emphasized the role of academic platforms in nurturing cultural discourse. An introductory note was delivered by Dr. Justine George setting the thematic tone for the day. The keynote address was delivered by renowned poet and writer K.V. Anilkumar, who offered rich insights into the poetic and philosophical dimensions of language and its cultural expressions.

Adding a vibrant cultural touch to the seminar, a classical dance performance by Devila J, I BVoc Tourism student of the college, was warmly received by the audience.

A significant highlight of the event was the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the Department of Malayalam and Probhodha Trust, marking the beginning of future collaborative academic and cultural initiatives.

The seminar also featured research paper presentations by scholars from various prestigious universities including M.G University, Calicut University and Aligarh Muslim University, reflecting a broad academic engagement with the theme.

International Mother Language Day Celebration and MT Vasudevan Nair Commemoration

The Department of Malayalam organized a program in connection with International Mother Language Day and the M.T. Vasudevan Nair Commemoration. The event aimed to celebrate the richness of the mother tongue and pay tribute to the legendary Malayalam writer, M.T. Vasudevan Nair.

The program was presided over by Rev. Fr. Varghese Valiyaparampil, the college manager, and was inaugurated by renowned Malayalam novelist and screenwriter P. V. Shajikumar, who addressed the gathering with insightful reflections on the significance of language and literature in shaping cultural identity.

As part of the M.T. Vasudevan Nair Commemoration, students Tessa Prince (III BA English) and Ashkar Shahi (II BA Economics) delivered thoughtful commemorative talks, highlighting M.T.'s contribution to Malayalam literature and cinema. Eminent faculty members and dignitaries including Rev. Fr. Jacob Baiju Ben, Dr. Justine George, Dr. Binu P. C, Sarath B. S, spoke on the occasion, enriching the event with their perspectives on the legacy of M.T. Vasudevan Nair and the cultural significance of preserving and promoting the mother tongue. Sreeraj MR expressed the Vote of thanks.

The program was a fitting tribute to both the linguistic heritage of Malayalam and the literary brilliance of M.T. Vasudevan Nair, inspiring students and attendees to uphold and celebrate their linguistic and cultural roots.
